'Grease: The Musical' 5th – 9th September 2023

Welcome to Hessle Theatre Company!

Hessle Theatre Company has been creating theatre since it was founded in 1922 as Hessle Operatic & Dramatic Society. For its members, HTC brings an opportunity to learn and develop skills in an enjoyable, social environment. There are opportunities in all aspects of theatre from flaunting your skills on stage as a performer to off-stage joining our technical crew, costumes and props, assisting promoting the show or welcoming our audience front of house! There are so many areas to get involved in!

Rehearsals

Rehearsals usually take place every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at Derringham Bank Methodist Church at 7.30pm and every alternative Sunday afternoon, possibly at an alternative venue (tbc). More information will be provided nearer the time from the director. Members are required to attend all rehearsals for which they are called. HTC recognises that not all of its member may be able to attend rehearsals because of holiday, illness or pre-arranged absences. Members MUST notify the Rehearsal Secretary of any absences by email or telephone. Significant absences from rehearsal may result in you being removed from the show or affect your success in being cast in future shows with Hessle Theatre Company.

Membership Fees

Current Membership fees are as follows:

New & returning members: £65.00 (ages 18 and over).

Continuing Members: £60.00

Full time education, unwaged or working part-time: £35.00

Youth members (under 18): £30.00

Membership fees can be paid as one lump sum or can be split into several smaller payments. Unless agreed otherwise if you are successful in being cast in this show, membership must be paid by 30th June 2020. If no attempt is made to pay your membership, you may be removed from the show or it may affect your success in being cast in future shows with Hessle Theatre Company.

Please speak to our Treasurer: Richard Carmichael to arrange your payment(s) which can be made via Cash, Cheque or Bank Transfer (Please email Richard to request our bank details: Richard.carmichael@hessletheatre.co.uk)

Code of Conduct

HTC asks that you treat all property, equipment, props, costumes, librettos and musical scores with care. Any damage or loss of property belonging to the Company must be reported and will be dealt with accordingly.

All members must respect the rules and policies of Hessle Theatre Company and all rehearsal and theatre venues that we have access to. We expect members to be courteous to each other, visitors and audience members.

Health and Safety

HTC are committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of our members, so far as is reasonably practicable. We are fully committed to protecting others who may be affected by our activities. Our members will be expected to follow instruction and training as is necessary to enable the safe performance of their activities with us.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

Hessle Theatre Company is aware that it has a responsibility to ensure that all reasonable measures are taken to provide and maintain a working environment which is accessible and inclusive for all staff, volunteers, management committee members, service users and the general public. A copy of our full Equality, diversity and inclusion Policy is available on request.

GDPR

Hessle Theatre Company needs to gather and use certain information about individuals. The Data Protection Act 1998 describes how organisations – including Hessle Theatre Company – must collect, handle and store personal information. These rules apply regardless of whether data is stored electronically, on paper or on other materials. To this end, the company has a privacy statement setting out how data relating to individuals is used by the company.
